DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

2. Claims 1, 2, 5-7 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Urabe.

Regarding claim 1,

Urabe discloses a subscriber device for providing location dependent system access, comprising

means for storing data indicative of at least one location-specific presence of each of a plurality of subscriber communication services (col 5 lines 26-58), means for identifying the general location of the device (col 5 lines 28-36 and 43-50, col 1 lines 37-40), and

means responsive to the location and the user selecting a specific service to retrieve data indicative of one or more of said presences corresponding to said service (col 1 lines 47-56, col 6 lines 46-53, col 7 lines 1-32).

Regarding claim 2,

Art Unit: 2681

Urabe further discloses means for activating the device using said retrieved data to establish communication with a selected presence (col 7 lines 41-52).

Regarding claim 5,

Urabe further discloses that said information is address information stored in a memory (col 5 lines 21-25, col 6 lines 20-38).

Regarding claims 6, 7 and 10,

Claims 6, 7 and 10 teach a method corresponding to and inherently performed by the system of claims 1, 2 and 5, respectively, and as such, are rejected under the same reasoning as claims 1, 2 and 5 above.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Urabe in view of .

Urabe discloses a subscriber device for providing location dependent system access, comprising memory means for storing address data (col 5 lines 21-25, col 6 lines 20-38) indicative of at least one location-specific presence of each of a plurality of subscriber communication services (col 5 lines 26-58), means for identifying the general location of the device (col 5 lines 28-36 and 43-50, col 1 lines 37-40), and

Art Unit: 2681

means responsive to the location and the user selecting a specific service to retrieve data indicative of one or more of said presences corresponding to said service (col 1 lines 47-56, col 6 lines 46-53, col 7 lines 1-32).

Urabe further discloses means for activating the device using said retrieved data to establish communication with a selected presence (col 7 lines 41-52).

Urabe does not disclose that the positioning means is GPS.

Beliveau discloses that GPS is a well-known alternative to terrestrial-based cellular locating (col 2 lines 26-47, col 5 lines 36-45). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to utilize GPS in the invention of Urabe, as it would provide more precise positioning.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 3, 4, 8, 9, 12 and 13 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Art Unit: 2681

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Claims 3, 8 and 12 teach towards a system and method for providing location dependent service to a subscriber, wherein dependent on position and previously stored information regarding specific presences in specific systems, a user may select a specific presence and establish communication with said presence. Further, responsive to movement of the subscriber into a new system, the subscriber unit will retrieve data corresponding to the new system and compare the new system's information to the presence being currently communicated with.

Claims 4, 9 and 13 further teach that in a case that the new presence differs from the old one, the subscriber unit is transferred to the equivalent service in the new system utilizing the new presence. Claims 3, 4, 8, 9, 12 and 13 teach a series of steps or elements which are neither taught nor suggested by the prior art.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Naddell et al discusses means for sorting service information via a table in a subscriber device.

Weidemann discusses means for allowing a user to select a particular communication service.

Art Unit: 2681

Murata discusses means for monitoring a current service, and switching services depending on certain criteria.

Hooper discusses selection of a preferred system.

Elzein discusses selection of service based on archived data in a subscriber unit.

Alperovich discusses sorting of service data by systems at a subscriber unit.

Blakeney, II et al discusses choosing of a preferred system service provider.
